On Day 1:

Grab your PASSPORT and let's head North. Stopping in Escanaba, Michigan for lunch at the Swedish Pantry where we will enjoy Swedish Meatballs sided with lingonberries and Homemade breads. After lunch we'll head farther north for a step-on guided tour of Historic Marquette, Michigan, Presque Isle Park and over 5 miles of scenic Lake Superior shoreline. Also the Superior Dome which opened as the "world's largest wooden dome" on September 14, 1991, is a domed stadium on the campus of Northern Michigan University. L

On Day 2:

After breakfast we will depart for a Pictured Rocks Boat Cruise on Lake Superior with a buffet lunch in Munising. Enjoy the drive through the wooded Upper Peninsula of Michigan on our way to Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, where we'll stay at the Kewadin Casino and Hotel for two nights. Dining at the Antlers Restaurant you will be intrigued by the antler collection and numerous mounted animals. Try the World famous Soo Stew Canoes, Venison Pie, or a burger including "The Paul Bunyan". A fun place to be! B, L

On Day 3:

Today it's the Agawa Canyon Train Tour. The Agawa Canyon Tour Train is a day-long wilderness trail adventure that travels over towering railway trestles, through incredible Cambrian Shield rock formations and along sparkling lakes and rivers. The tour features dining car service and includes a 2-hour stopover at Agawa Canyon Park. Breakfast included on the train and a box lunch to enjoy while spending time in the Canyon. Buffet dinner at the Kewadin Casino. B, L, D

On Day 4:

After breakfast and check-out at the Kewadin Casino & Hotel, travel to Upper Tahquamenon Falls in the Tahquamenon State Park. Hike to see the falls or visit the gift shop. Dutch treat lunch at the Tahquamenon Falls Brewery & Pub. Next, we're off to the Big Springs of Michigan in the Palms Book State Park on Indian Lake near Manistiquie, Michigan. There we'll meet with the park ranger for a site interpretation, hand-powered raft ride and visit to the park's gift shop. Dutch treat dinner will be at Schoegel's Bay View Restaurant before heading home. B
